

EBIFlow is a workflow application which increases your business efficiency and simplifies the workflow. Because of visual aids, EBIFlow helps to create business applications that will provide you with regular business, change in business processes and allow easy application. Business processes fills the gap between people and information technology and simplifies it.

EBIFlow provides a large scale workflow platform which can be used from simple affurance transactions to complex producing processes to the various levels. It solves application development quickly by integrating easily with various databases and systems such as SAP

- General Properties
- Technical Properties
- Demo Presentations
- Booklet

To use a work flow of your application for the industry or sector may provide independent advantages.

- Click here for getting more information about general advantages
- Click here for getting more information about different advantages depends on areas
- Click here for getting more information about workflow